

NEWS FROM THE IASJF

⇒ We report with great sadness that Richard Wilkins passed away on November 26. Richard Wilkins was a Director of the Doha International Institute for Family Studies and Development, an Emeritus Professor of Brigham Young University, and an active Member of the IASJF since its foundation, and he served on the Executive Board of Directors. Some initiatives to pay tribute to his memory will be discussed in the Board of Directors.

⇒ The Academy is now present in Chile, Mexico, Italy, Brazil and Australia, through the new Members who joined the IASJF in the last quarter.

⇒ The By-laws of the IASJF are posted on the IASJF website: <http://www.iasjf.org/>. This website also sets forth other developments. All Members are invited to contribute relevant information from their countries.

⇒ Certificates of Membership have been issued this month. Those Members who do not receive a certificate by the end of January are requested to notify Carmen Garcimartin (cgarcimartin@udc.es) or Francie Jenson (jensonf@law.byu.edu).

NEXT IASJF SYMPOSIUM

⇒ The next symposium of the IASJF will be held at Cardozo Law School in New York City on June 10-11, 2013. Its title is "Privacy, Autonomy, and Should States Regulate Family Relations?". A call for papers has been sent to all Members, and is posted in the IASJF webpage as well (<http://www.iasjf.org>). The deadline for submissions is March 15. To date, more than 20 persons have confirmed their attendance and indicated their intention to submit papers. We encourage all Members to spread the notice of this symposium in their academic networks; the participation of professors from as many different cultures and countries as possible will enhance the debate on the proposed topic.

MEMBERS AWARDS AND APPOINTMENTS

⇒ Professor Oran Doyle has been promoted to the rank of Associate Professor at Trinity College, Dublin.

PUBLICATIONS

⇒ The third volume of the International Journal of the Jurisprudence of the Family will be published later this year. Article submissions for the fourth volume may be sent to the Editor in Chief, Scott FitzGibbon (Boston College Law School, 885 Centre Street, Newton Center, Massachusetts 02459, United States; fitzgisc@yahoo.com).
